Buy tickets to 'push the plunger' on the Brayton Point towers

By: Herald News Published: March 12, 2019

The Brayton Point cooling towers are scheduled to be imploded Saturday, April 27, and tickets are available for those looking to be the lucky one to 'push the plunger.' All proceeds from ticket sales will benefit the Vietnam Veteran's Memorial Wall installation coordinated by the Greater Fall River Vietnam Wall Committee, according to a press release from the Office of Speaker Pro Tempore Patricia Haddad. "This is a ceremonial pushing of the plunger. The professional demolition team hired by Commercial Development Corporation, owners of the Brayton Point Commerce Center, will actually detonate the explosives simultaneously with the winner pushing the plunger," said Haddad, D-Somerset. "The state police, state department of transportation, Somerset, Swansea and Fall River police and fire as well as others are being coordinated by the town of Somerset."

One thousand tickets were printed, according to Haddad's office, so get them while they last. Tickets, provided by Haddad and state Sen. Michael J. Rodrigues, will be available until Patriots Day, April 15.

Drawing of the winning ticket will take place April 17 at a location yet to be announced. The winning ticket holder need not be in attendance.

Tickets are $20 and can be found at the following locations: — Annie's Unique Boutique, 1049 County St., Somerset — Auclair's Market, 145 County St., Somerset — LCPL John J. VanGyzen Marine Corps League, 265 High St., Somerset — J. Marshall Associates, 982 Eastern Ave., Fall River — Members of the Vietnam Wall Committee.
